Re: Evergreen International Airlines (EIA) company closure

EIA Layoffs

Please be advised that Evergreen International Airlines (EIA), which operates out of various states (within the United States) with its corporate location in McMinnville, Oregon will end all operations, effective 11/30/2013. Therefore, EIA will no longer conduct business. (However, this date could be pushed into the month of December, 2013.

The last day of all operations will be November 30, 2013. Therefore the last day of employment for employees will range from current day (11/07/2013) through November 30, 2013 with a small number of specific employees remaining to complete the closing requirements. There are no bumping rights.

We appreciate your service, hard work and strong commitment to the Airlines, over the years. The loss of our company is very unfortunate; however, we appreciate your continued excellent service during this ending phase.
