Riley McNally has shown exceptional work ethic and leadership beginning the 2014 season. Riley started red hot at the plate for the Grizzlies with clutch hits and RBI in the first games. He has also excelled on the mound as a starting pitcher, earning several wins in his first starts. The team is excited about his consistency he brings day in and day out.

Jacinda hits lead off for the Grizzlies, she consistently does her job of getting herself on base with solid hits to the outfield. She has shown how tough she is by playing through a knee injury. Jacinda's energy is infectious and we are so proud of her hard work this season!

Edoardo started off his high school tennis career with a 6-0, 6-0 win over Dallas.
