

MACH HIGH

athletes of the week

Kyle Casey

Baseball

Junior / Coach: Jordon Harlow | Parents: Sean & Patricia

Junior Kyle Casey is off to a red-hot start for the Grizzlies. In five games, he is 8 for 12 with seven RBI heading into the first week of league play. Kyle's work ethic and positive attitude are contagious with his teammates and these traits have only been amplified through the numbers he has put up. His consistent defense at second base has also been stellar. Look for #14 to be a key contributor for the Grizz as the season continues.

Samantha Hensley

Softball

Junior / Coach: Courtney Seifert | Parents: Kyle & Stacie

Sam has had a great start to the season. She is one of our strongest hitters and seasoned outfielders. Sam is an asset to our team, her knowledge of the game and leadership this year have been great to have. She supports her teammates and plays hard. We are proud of the softball player Sam has worked hard to become and are excited to see where it takes her in the future!

KJ Smith & Tyler Patterson

Boys' Tennis Doubles

Parents: Dean & Sheryl Carol Collins

Kj Smith & Tyler Patterson – Kj and Tyler won their match against Tigard by a score of 6-2, 2-6, 6-3. However, it was their ability to pump up the rest of the team that made them stand out even more. They not only encouraged each other but pumped up other teammates in other matches in the process, which allowed the team to comeback and tie the match up against the Tigers. While we ended up losing the match on overall games won, we were in that position thanks to Kj and Tyler's play and leadership.

Shay Bristow

Girls' Tennis

Sophomore / Coach: Angelica Houston | Parents: Ladd & Cindy

Shay Bristow had a great week last week in her competitions against Forest Grove and Tigard. She won in two sets against Forest Grove but showed her true competitive spirit against Tigard when the match went to three sets and she came from behind to win the tie-break. Shay is a sophomore that always pushes herself, and her teammates to become better. It will be fun to see what she accomplishes in the upcoming years. Great job Shay!

Tanner Scanlon

Boys' Track

Junior / Coach: Vic Downs | Parents: Bruce & Lisa

In the Newberg dual meet, Tanner had a great day. He placed second in the high hurdles, ran on the fastest 1600m Relay team of the year, and won both the long jump and 300m hurdles. His mark in the long jump ranks him 9th in the state and his 300m hurdles time was the best in the state! You are doing great, Tanner!

Amber Bonds

Girls' Track

Senior / Coach: Vic Downs | Parents: David & Lara

A huge personal best in the discus propelled Amber to 3rd in the state rankings! Her throw of 115' was amazing! She is also the top discus thrower in the conference. In just her second year of track, Amber is competing like she has been throwing all her life. Congratulations on your success, Amber!
