athletes of the week

WILL SMOTHERS

Boys' Cross Country

Junior / Coach: Vic Downs | Parents: Kelly & Dana

In the district meet, Will ran solid and beat the #5 man on five different teams. In doing so, he kept them from scoring less points than us. Will's effort helped us qualify to state for the first time since 2001. Congratulations, Will and good luck at state!!

JOSIE HALL

Girls' Cross Country

Freshman / Coach: Vic Downs | Parents: Dan & Teri

In the District Meet, Josie ran a huge personal best of 22:43. Her effort helped us beat seven other teams and qualify to the state meet! Josie will be running in her first state meet this Saturday! Good luck, Josie!!

NOAH DAUGHERTY

Football

Senior / Coach: Robin Hill | Parents: Patrick & Esther

Noah scored a touchdown and had an interception for the Grizzlies against Parkrose last Friday. Noah, a starting linebacker and defensive leader filled in at fullback and got the team on board with a first quarter run. Noah has improved throughout the year becoming a consistent contributor for the Grizzlies. Good Job Noah!

TAYLOR OTTELE

Volleyball

Senior / Coach: Jenifer Gubrud | Parents: Launa

As a senior defensive specialist on our team, Taylor has made a big impact. Taylor is the first to arrive daily and help whatever needs to be done. She works hard every practice to improve her skills and make her teammates better around her. She is enthusiastic and positive no matter what the situation and is a true team player. Great job Tayonce', you have made a big impact on this team.

IRVIN FIGUEROA

Boys' Soccer

Junior / Coach: Jory Shene | Parents: Rodolfo & Chavez

Irvin stepped up into a starter role this week with the absence of other teammates. He helped solidify and limit Forest Grove to a handful of shots in a 3-2 win. Irvin will be in impact player for the next year to come. Way to go Irvin!

EMELY ROSALES

Girls' Soccer

Senior / Coach: Victor Campos | Parents: Miguel & Gloria

Emely is one of the smartest players we have, she has seen a lot of center mid and outside mid and has done a great job. Her positioning and understanding of the game makes her a tough player to beat. She holds the ball for us very well and is able to find her options. She has done nothing but good for our team and always willing to do whatever is asked of her.
