

MACHIGH

athletes of the week

Leslie Ramirez

Volleyball

Senior / Coach: Ben Patterson | Parents: Fernando & Erica

Leslie is a senior outside hitter who has demonstrated leadership and encouraged a team-first attitude. Leslie plays with grit and has earned the respect of her teammates and coaches. She is our team's loudest supporter and always supports her teammates, knowing what to say and how to say it. She has played an integral role on this team and will be greatly missed next season.

Clayton Maves

Boys' Soccer

Junior / Coach: Jory Shene | Parents: Ben & Deanna

This past week, Clayton helped the Grizzlies beat David Douglas during the first round of the OSAA state playoffs. His pace and tenacity helped solidify and lock down the Grizzly defense and only allowed 1 goal in the 2-1 win. He is a great student (3.5 and above) and is a true student-athlete. He will be a huge part of the defensive structure that will continue in state this year and for his senior year as well.

Makayla Khatewoda

Girls' Soccer

Junior / Coach: Adam Howard | Parents: Michelle & Sanjaya

Makayla had an incredible week of soccer last week. In our game against Crater Makayla scored an incredible goal purely off of effort, and made great play after great play. Her work ethic and toughness have made her into a difficult player to guard throughout that game. All season long Makayla has inspired her teammates in practices and games to be better. Great job Makayla, we are so proud of you!

Gage Gubrud

Football

Senior / Coach: Robin Hill | Parents: Chris & Jenifer

Gage helped the Grizzlies secure a state playoff berth with a 62-14 victory over McKay. Gage had great half of football as he was 14-17 passing for 276 yards with four passing touchdowns and one rushing score all before halftime. Great job Gage and good luck versus Oregon City.
