GIRLS' SWIMMING STATE TEAM

Coach: Jason Hafner

KALINA BUHLER, SYDNEY STERN, ROSIE PORTER, MOLLI HARTZELL,
CHLOE ZINDA, EMILEE HESSEL, JESSICA NOYES

The Grizzly girls wrapped up another successful season with their 200 freestyle relay team of Molli Hartzell, Sydney Stern, Kalina Buhler, and Rosie Porter finishing 12th. Molli also finished 9th in 50 free and 12th in the 100 backstroke. This group was the core of the girls' team leading the way in practice and in competitions. It's a great accomplishment to just qualify for state and the coaches are proud of them! Great job and Go Grizzlies!

BOYS' SWIMMING STATE TEAM

Coach: Jason Hafner

GIOVANNI MARIOTTI, MAX HAYES, LEVI BURRESS, GARRETT SUTTON,
HUNTER HARRIS, NATE BLACKWELL-MITCHELL, SAM SWENSON

The Grizzly boys came into the state meet tied for 6th place and swam their way into a second place finish. The runner up position was due in a big part to their strong relay finishes. In addition to finishing second in the 200 medley relay the team of Mariotti, Hayes, Burress, and Sutton swam the second fastest time ever in Grizzly swimming history. Giovanni Mariotti also set a new school record in the 100 backstroke of 50.73. Great job and Go Grizzlies!

DEVON MILLER GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Junior | Coach: Sean Coste | Parent: Kathy

Devon played strong last week in competitive games with West Salem and South Salem. She rebounded well and powered strong to the basket when the opportunities presented. Devon is very unselfish in the post; she does a great job of finding her teammates after receiving the ball. She has worked very hard in the offseason developing strong moves around the basket. Devon understands our offense very well, she doesn't force plays and is an excellent team player. Keep up the great work, Devon.
