

ANNOUNCING THE LAW FIRM OF GOODFELLOW & COTTLE

Compassion. Support. Guidance. Results.

Mark O. Cottle

Mark was born and raised in Oregon. He attended Brigham Young University's J. Ruben Clark Law School and graduated Cum Laude in 1989. Since graduation, he has practiced law in the Portland Metropolitan area, focusing on Family Law, Land Use, Construction law and Civil Litigation. Mr. Cottle has represented individuals in hundreds of divorces, custody determinations, support hearings and the like. He has also counseled individuals and businesses in numerous land use applications. He protects contractors and material suppliers through construction liens and helps clients involved in civil litigation ranging from animal cases, trespass, landlord, employer-employee issues, commercial transactions and general civil/tort issues.

In addition to his law practice, Mark previously served as Mayor of the City of Sherwood, on the Sherwood City Council for eight years and has served on numerous County and City boards.

Most importantly, Mr. Cottle is married to Susie and they have 4 children (three being triplets) and two grandchildren. In his spare time, Mark runs, hikes, has a small orchard with berries and enjoys taking groups of youth on backpacking trips.

Serving all of Yamhill, Polk, Marion and Tri-County areas.

(503) 472-9090

brent@gocolaw.com

www.gocolaw.com