

ANNOUNCING THE LAW FIRM OF GOODFELLOW & COTTLE

Compassion. Support. Guidance. Results.

Brent J. Goodfellow

Mr. Goodfellow was admitted in 2003 to practice law in the Oregon State Courts and in 2008 in the US District Court of Oregon. His judicial experience includes McMinnville Municipal Court Judge Pro Tempore (2006-October, 2008), Carlton Municipal Court Judge Pro Tempore (April, 2007-October, 2008) and Circuit Court Judge Pro Tempore (October, 2008-2016). He was selected as a SuperLawyer Rising Star 2010-2015. This award goes to only the top 2.5 percent of Oregon lawyers as selected by his peers.

Mr. Goodfellow, the law firm's managing partner, has represented hundreds of people going through the challenges that come with divorce, custody disputes, child and spousal support modifications and all family law related issues. He has also recovered millions for individuals and businesses that have suffered injuries as a result of medical malpractice, car accidents, sexual assaults and discrimination, and many other types of negligence. He has been featured on Good Morning America, ABC World News, Inside Edition, The Washington Post and New York Times, among others.

The trial lawyers at Goodfellow & Cottle have expertise in criminal law, juvenile law, family law, business formation and litigation, estate planning, personal injury and malpractice. Call to speak to one of the experienced attorneys at Goodfellow & Cottle today.

Serving all of Yamhill, Polk, Marion and Tri-County areas.

(503) 472-9090

brent@gocolaw.com

www.gocolaw.com