Dear Ms. Butler:

The Elections Division received a complaint regarding the campaign finance activity of several political committees active at the 2014 Primary Election, including Oregon Family Council PAC (OFC). Included with the complaint was a copy of a mailing that was received in House District 23. The mailing advocated for the election of Mike Nearman, a candidate for State Representative District 23. See enclosed copy of the mailing identified as Mailing C. Please respond to the following questions and provide any documentation to support your response by August 13, 2014. You may call me at 503-986-1518 if you have any questions about the content of this letter.

1. Who provided the printing and mailing for the campaign literature?
2. Did you place the order for the piece? If you did not place the order, who did on your behalf? Please provide contact information for that person.
3. Who was your contact person with the business that provided the campaign literature?
4. Did OFC design the campaign literature? If, no, who provided the design service? Please provide contact information for that person.
5. On what date was the order placed for the campaign literature?
6. Did you or any agent of OFC have any communication with any agent of the Nearman campaign regarding the piece of campaign literature? If yes, provide the name and contact information of the agent(s) involved.
7. Were the expenses incurred for the piece of campaign literature reported in ORESTAR? If yes, please provide the transaction id numbers associated with the payments.

Mike Nearman. House District 23's Top Candidate for Life, Marriage and Religious Liberty

Dallas, OR 97338-9316

Dear

When choosing a candidate for public office, there's one thing that's more critical than his position on issues ... that's integrity. Sadly, your current Representative Jim Thompson, fails on both counts.

After publicly proclaiming for nearly a decade that he was "a firm believer in traditional marriage", Jim Thompson then became a leader in Freedom Oregon, an organization whose soul purpose is to overturn traditional marriage in our State Constitution and legalize same-sex marriage. In the last election, through phone interviews and questionnaires, Jim Thompson assured OFC's staff that he supported Oregon's Constitutional definition of marriage. Jim Thompson's reason for changing his position ... it's going to happen anyway, what difference does it make? If Thompson will so easily abandon his principles on marriage and family, what will he compromise next? Clearly, Jim Thompson cannot be trusted.

That's why I'm thrilled to introduce you to Mike Nearman. Mike is a proven conservative candidate running against Jim Thompson in the republican primary. Mike will stand strong for traditional marriage as well as other important issues like life and religious liberty.

Mike comes with an impressive resume. He's a computer software engineer with degrees from both Marquette University in Milwaukee, WI and Western Oregon University. His governmental experience includes serving on the Central School District Budget Committee, a board member with Oregonians for Immigration Reform, and Mike was Chair of the Polk County Republican Central Committee. Mike was also a key leader in the successful effort to defeat the Polk County property tax increase.

I urge you to vote for Mike Nearman in the upcoming May primary election. Mike is a man of his word and won't compromise his conservative principles.

Sincerely,

Jack Louman
Executive Director

P.S House District 23 deserves a representative who can be trusted to stick to his conservative principles. We believe Mike Nearman is that man ... Jim Thompson clearly is not!
