

ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

MCMINNVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
2018-2019

Jacie Ruden

VOLLEYBALL

Sophomore | Coach: Ben Patterson
Parents: Brian & Amy

Jacie is a sophomore libero and has been huge in setting the tone for both our offense and our defense this season. Jacie leads us in digs and in serve percentage. She is also second on the team in serve receive average. She is a steady presence and consistently puts the ball in a place where our setter can set and our hitters can produce. We are excited to have Jacie in our program.

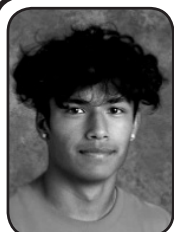

Shaylynn Miller

GIRLS' SOCCER

Senior | Coach: Anna Heuberger
Parents: Clinton & Tina

As a senior, Shay leads the defense with her role as a center back. Shay led the Grizzlies to a 2-1 win over Newberg last week, and we look forward to seeing what she does this week in the last few games of conference play. Keep up the good work!

Abel Cervantes

BOYS' CROSS COUNTRY

Junior | Coach: Vic Downs
Parents: John & Maria

At the meet at Sherwood High, Abel had his best race of the year. He finished 4th for the team and ran 17:48 for a 24 second personal best! Abel has been quite an addition to the team. Good luck at the District Meet!

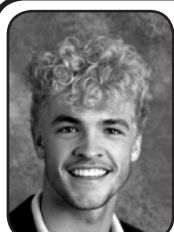

Grace Bliven

GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY

Junior | Coach: Vic Downs
Parents: Matt & Tina

When we needed someone to step up late in the season, it was Grace who answered the call. She ran an outstanding race for the Grizzly girls finishing 3rd on the team. Her effort helped the girls beat Sherwood and Liberty and keep the girls unbeaten. Way to run hard Grace!

Grayson Elmer

FOOTBALL

Senior | Coach: Ryan McIrvin
Parents: Denny & Lucetta

Grayson had a strong defensive and offensive performance for the Grizzlies in their 44-22 win at Glencoe last Thursday. As a starter at both Tight End and Defensive End, Grayson's strong blocking helped the Grizzlies run for over 250 yards on the night. Defensively, Grayson is one of the team leaders in tackles and has been a solid performer all year. Great job Grayson and Go Grizzlies!!
