

MACH HIGH

athletes of the week

DEVON WILSON

Boys' Cross Country

Junior / Coach: Vic Downs | Parents: Tim & Denise

In the home meet last week, Devon kept his cool as a West Albany runner took the lead and then put the race away the last 2000 meters for the win. Devon ran a personal best of 17:09 in the effort. It was Devon's first win over 5000 meters! Congratulations Dev!

WHITNEY RICH

Girls' Cross Country

Junior / Coach: Vic Downs | Parents: Corey & Tarah

The defending District Meet champ ran a perfect race at Joe Dancer last week. She ran a controlled first mile and then picked up the pace to win convincingly. Whitney is looking fast in practice and always working hard. Keep up the great work!

TANNER SCANLON

Football

Senior / Coach: Robin Hill | Parents: Bruce & Lisa

Tanner had a solid all-around game for the Grizzlies in their season opener against West Salem. Offensively, Tanner led the team in total yards including a 28 yard reception and a big kickoff return in the first half. On defense, Tanner had a team high 9 tackles while lining up all over the field for the Grizzly D. Go Grizzlies!

JOSIE SMITH

Volleyball

Senior / Coach: Jennifer Gubrud | Parents: Joe & Darla

Josie has stepped up big for our team this season. As our libero she has a lot of responsibility in the back row passing serves, and defending, a role she is excelling at. Josie worked hard in the off season to improve her skills and it shows. We appreciate her leadership and work ethic on this team and trust that she will get the job done when we need her most. Josie is a true team player and competitor. Keep up the great work Josie!

CLAYTON MAVES

Boys' Soccer

Senior / Coach: Jory Shene | Parents: Robert Maves and Ben & Diana

Clayton played a great game in our 2-0 loss to Grant. His attacking mind nearly netted him his first goal of the season when he rattled the top corner of the goal. He also created 4 other chances while attacking from his defensive position. Clayton is a captain this year and will provide leadership in the defense going forward. Keep up the good work!

CARLISE TOPPING

Girls' Soccer

Senior / Coach: Victor Campos | Parents: Chip & Sid

Through her hard work and leadership, Carli has shown that she can step up when the team needs her most, notching the teams only 3 goals this week including 2 in a win against Canby. She is one of 4 captains on the squad and will continue to step up in games as the season goes on. Congratulation Carli!
